

Tell Us About Your Girls on the Run Experience!

Write a short paragraph or two about one of the following topics:

What I have learned about myself at Girls on the Run:

I have learned on girls on the run that your body was given to you by God. It's your body, and never ever try changing yourself for some body.

What I am inspired by:

I am inspired by Tom boys, Marvel and other comic books. I am also inspired by people (like me) who don't care what they look like, or how people see me!
